

AgriSpan Financing for 2010

The input financing program that your Cooperative has offered in the past called Partners in Production now goes by the name of AgriSpan. As in years past, we are pleased to offer this program for your 2010 input needs and feel though the name has changed, it still offers a solid financing option for our patrons to consider.

Please contact your local agronomy office or Chuck Squires at the Pigeon business office for details.